Attention: Officer C. J. Navarre

Dear Mr. Navarre:

In accordance with our telephone conversation today, I am enclosing herewith a photocopy of the hand written receipt for the application for employment of Lee H. Oswald.

Unfortunately, I did not make a copy of the application and the F.B.I. has never returned it to me.

Although we do not know the exact date that he applied, we believe it was the afternoon of Friday, July 26, 1963. As we had [illegible]

The F.B.I agent made the comment that he had already received two of the names from other sources but one of them was evidently new to him at that time.

The only other thing that I can remember about the visit was that the F.B.I. agent also stated that he was disappointed that Oswald had printed his name at the bottom of the application rather than signing it as they were looking for copies of his signature.
